

Is Interracial Marriage a Sin?

This is an in depth study into interracial marriage. You will be reading some amazing truth that you definitely are not learning in school and most assuredly not in your church either - if you do attend church. It is so clear to those who really want to search and know the truth - even if the world hates the truth.

The people of the Bible understood these things - but sadly - just as the Bible predicted the truth has been hidden. In fact, the truth of the Bible has been hidden away so well, that because of a few mistranslations - most people think that the Jews are God's chosen people. However, a careful study of the Bible and history will prove beyond a shadow of a doubt that the white race is God's chosen people.

This makes it even more serious when a white boy or girl dates or marries a non-white. You probably already think its gross, but did you know that your gut instinct is right. Did you know that the Bible backs up your feelings about it. Its true. I hope you will take the time to study the Bible lesson below. If anyone ever tries to trick you into thinking that your belief about racial separation is wrong, you will know in your heart and your mind that you are RIGHT!

BIBLE STUDY

In Genesis we read, "In the beginning God created the heavens and the Earth". "And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was on the face of the deep"

The darkness that was on the face of the deep, and the earth being without form, and void, are rather interesting passages. The writings of the ancients, in the areas of early Hebrew, tell us that the condition that made the earth without form, and void, was the hand of God placing gigantic forces in operation, to void great evil and tremendous transgression and to bring catastrophe and judgment and elimination of people from earth bondage.

The Webster dictionary tells you the word void means the aftermath of judgment by great power. To void a thing is to remove or efface it as it was. You may erase a number on your cell phone, but it doesn't mean the entry was never there, but that you are returning it to its original account.

We are first told that God made the heavens and the earth, and then we are told that it was voided. Could this be due to the fact that the Almighty cast one third of the rebellious angels to another realm where they corrupted his creation?

In the book of Ephesians it tells us that we are pilgrims in the earth and pre-existed with God. In Jeremiah 4:23, Jeremiah, through a vision, remembering his previous home with God says, "I beheld the earth, and, lo, it BECAME without form and was void; the heavens had no light. I beheld the mounts, and they trembled, and the hills did move. I beheld, and , lo, there was no man, for the birds of the heavens had fled. I beheld the fruitful place that was a wilderness, and all the cities were broken down from the presence of God and His anger." This certainly explains ancient ruins in the lower strata (layers) of the earth, artifacts and tools that are millions of years old.

Adam was not the first man. In Genesis 1:26-28 we read, "Male and female created He them" and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and REplenish the Earth." This was on the 6th day or 6th AGE of creation. There had been an earlier creation, which was destroyed of which we have already spoken. The male and female, speaking plurally, were to REplenish what had been destroyed. Plenish is an obsolete English word that means "to fill" They were to REfill the earth. You cannot refill what has not already been filled. For instance, you can fill the ice cube tray for the first time, but to REfill the tray denotes its earlier state of having ONCE been filled.

The new creation was to be fruitful and multiply and this occurred millions of years ago. Now you know why there are to be found the remains of Negroes, Asians, and other similar peoples that date back to 1,500,000 years old. Yet no white man or woman has ever been found to date further back than 6000 years.

And then in the seventh age, God rested and his creation multiplied and again spread across the face of the earth.

There are two Hebrew word translated to "create". One is bara, which means to make something; like an artist might sculpt something. The other is "yatstar" which means to bring forth out of one's self. God created the red, yellow and black races and gave them dominion over the animals of the earth and yes, he did and still does love his creation.

You may now ask, well where does Adam and Eve come into the picture? We will find them appearing on the 8th day. When God said, I have no man to till the soil. In Strong's concordance "till" means to serve, to set in order, compel, bring to pass, to supervise. God had already created the red man, the yellow man, and the black man, but he wanted someone to compel his earlier creation to a productive work., to rule, to bring order to the earth. And he created (yatstar) brought forth issue – his child, his genetic legacy. He called them Adam and then separated the woman from Adam and she was now called Eve – the mother of all living (spiritually).

Adam and Eve were not the progenitors (parents)of all races. Isn't it amusing how on one hand the modern church fights against the idea of evolution and than on the other hand wants us to believe that all races evolved from one source.

Now why didn't God give a woman of another race of the earlier creation to Adam? If she is to be "but the servant of the man" as Whartons Laws from the first half of the 19th century says, than any race would have been fine. It doesn't take a genius to clean a home, mend clothes, fix a meal, etc as important as these things may be. But God did not want a help-mate for Adam he wanted a help-MEET. Meet means "a counterpart, a person very closely like or corresponding to another person." In the dictionary we find the word meet means fitting, made to fit, akin (of one kin; related, having similar qualities, suitable, appropriate, proper. Rushdoony's Institutes of Biblical Law state that a woman's normal sphere is that of advisor and counselor. A true help-meet is man's image and must mirror his image. She must be of the same race.

The facts stated above have been taught and regarded as truth by Gods people throughout the centuries although at times when it was disregarded it brought God's wrath.

In this last age we begin seeing this truth destroyed. Justin D. Fulton, a Boston minister popular in liberal circles wrote in 1869:

"Much is said against amalgamation, as though it were a crime. There is no crime in it or about it. There is much of prejudice, but no crime. If a white man loves a black woman, there is no law in God's code forbidding the union. God made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on the face of the earth. Complexions may differ, owing to climate, or temperament, (evolution) but the blood is the same. The races have a common Father in God. In this intermingling of races, coming to this land from all climes, we perceive the seedling of a glorious hope. The future American is to be the product of this blending of the distinctive features of all the various races of earth. Against this result there is an immense amount of prejudice; but in Europe it does not exist. Many a white man has found his help-mate in a black woman, and many more will find help-mates from the same source."

He continues in his assault upon white women with the following:

"Think of Miss Anthony (Susan B.) and Mrs. Stanton in the train of George Francis, perambulating the country in favor of the ballot. These are the leaders; but let it not be forgotten that they sided against the ballot for the Negro, and proved their utter worthlessness and untrustworthiness by trailing the banner committed to their keeping in the slime of a convention which went for the repudiation of the national debt, the defeat of the party of progress, and for the overthrow of the Republicans (Republicans at that time were in the forefront of full Negro-White equality). Had woman possessed the ballot, and had the course pursued by the leaders of this movement exercised an influence over the majority, this wonderful victory over the rebellious spirits of the land would not been achieved; but, in its stead, the stars and bars would have resumed their way, and the stars and stripes, which now kiss the breeze, and greet the rising hopes of uncouthed millions, would have been furled in gloom and night."

This liberal traitor first encourages the practice of white men taking Negresses for help-mates and then bashes the early suffragists for their stand against Negro voting rights. He warns that if the majority of the suffragists had had their way, by their influence, the South would not have been destroyed. Yet, to destroy the relationship between white men and women, the re-writers of history imply that these women ushered in a new era of racial equality, when in fact, the majority of them (albeit a few Jewesses) were white Christian women who worked to strengthen the family in a time when Jewish influences were having a very negative impact on the nation. (How this Christian woman's movement was hijacked will be discussed in a later article.)

God himself ordained the white man and woman to have the pre-eminence and from the beginning Satan has been out to subvert their authority in the earth by any means necessary. He instills within the created races the desire to rule or supervise which they are incapable of doing. God's sons and daughters are to be a blessing to the world. It is through the compassion of the white race that education, health care, law and order have been brought to the pre-Adamic non-white creation. When non-whites attempt to usurp the authority of the white race, they are hurting themselves in the long run.

Examples within the Bible of God's view toward the mixing of the races:

Genesis 6:9 These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God. Perfect means without blemish. "Generation" in the Hebrew concordance means descent, family, history, birth. Noah was perfect in his descent. He was of pure seed and untainted; his wife also. It is interesting to note here that one of the signs of the last days is that it will be like in the days of Noah – rampant race-mixing.

Genesis Chapter 16,17 God tells Abram and Sarah that they will have a son although both are very old.. God makes a covenant with Abram changing his name to Abraham and tells him, "I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of thee, and kings shall come out of thee." And then he changes Abram's racially pure wife's name to Sarah and says, "I will bless her and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of people shall be of her."

Genesis Chapter 24: Abraham, knowing he is to die soon, makes his servant swear an oath that (Sarah is dead by this time) he will insure that Isaac, Abraham's and Sarah's son, will not take a wife from the daughters of the Canaanites, but "thou shalt go unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my unto my son Isaac." The word kindred means "lineage, offspring, family". He wanted his son to have a racially pure wife.

Genesis Chapter 26: Essau and Jacob are born to Isaac and Rebecca. Esau sells his birthright and then marries a local non-white girl. "And Esau was forty years old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite; Which were a grief of mind unto Isaac and to Rebecca. Chapter 28: Isaac and Rebecca tells Jacob not to take a wife of the daughters of Canaan, but rather go to [the house] family or kindred of his mother's people. He is to travel to his mother's land and find a wife from among his own race. This was not a simple matter of religious differences or they would have commanded Jacob to covert a local girl and then take her as wife. No, he was to have a racially pure marriage.

God's people were to remain racially pure and were to retain rulership. Deuteronomy Chapter 17: 15...thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother. (stranger means not of thy kindred) Jeremiah Chapter 30: And their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them"

Moses presents the 10 Commandments (there are other laws besides these) Among the 10 Commandments is the 8th. Thou shall not commit adultery. But you may say to yourself, doesn't this have to do with cheating spouses. No. That is covered under the 10th, which says....thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife. There are always "root" words that form a foundation for a particular word such as adulterate. When you look at the meaning of this word, you will understand why this refers to miscegenation. Look in the dictionary. Adulterate: to make inferior, impure, not genuine, by adding a poor or improper substance.

Pastor J.V. Foster has this comment:

Interracial marriage has ALWAYS been defined as adultery. Jer. 3:8-9 gives us light on this. "And I say, when for all causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce: yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also. And it came to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks." The words "stones" and "stocks" are physical seed and idol worship. God was referring to a nation that had intermarried physically, and intermarried philosophically.

Leviticus Chapter 20: "I am the lord your God, which have separated you from other people." The word separated means "to divide, distinguish, and differ.

Ezra Chapter 2: The priests had intermarried with the strange daughters of the land and when their racial purity was questioned and was found to be polluted they were cast off. "These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood."

Numbers Chapter 25: And Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom* with the daughters of Moab. (The Moabites were descended from Essau and had become racially polluted) And behold one of the children of Israel came and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel." Phinehas, a priest thrusts them through with a javelin...so the plague was stayed from the children of Israel. Whoredom* means to commit adultery. Strongs [2181] This was a legal execution after Moses (who was like the President) instructed the leaders to find those who were breaking this law - which was a capital offence - the same as murder.

Kings Chapter 10 tells us about Solomon and his greatness, but then in Chapter 11 we find Solomon committing evil. "But King Solomon loved many strange women" even after he acknowledged the separation of races (Chapter 8) The word strange means "foreign, non relative, different, alien." The women that Solomon loved were not of his race. They were not his kindred. "and Solomon clave unto these [strange women] in love..." Yes ye loved them, but did that make it right? You will hear people say all the time, "but if two people love each other than what's wrong with different races marrying" or "It doesn't matter what color of skin you have as long as you have love." That, however, doesn't hold water against God's commandments. Do people in sin hate their vice? Does a drunkard hate his drink or love it? Even a pedophile will say he loves those he defiles, yet that doesn't make it right. God took the Kingdom away from Solomon for his sin of adultery.

Kings Chapter 16: King Ahab takes Jezabel a strange woman as wife. Jezabel was not a wicked Israelite Queen, but was a Zidonian. They were descended from the Canaanites. She was a false prophetess, not because she was a woman, (Deborah, Anna, Hulda were among the righteous female prophets) but she was wicked because she was a non-white Heathen who killed the leaders of Israel. It was also an abomination because God had told the people not to have strangers rule over them.

Ezra Chapter 10: .. We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land..Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them..at the commandment of our God and according to the law (send them away) Ezra asks God, 9Verse 14) "Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations?" Affinity (#2859) means "to give a daughter away in marriage." He then goes on to recognize that God will deal treacherously with His people should they continue their intermarriage and do not send their strange wives and children away. Yes, today in the humanistic world it seems most cruel to send the wife or husband away and the children also, to have nothing to do with them. Oh how terrible some may think? But that was God's command to right the wrong. This was not merely a case of a man or woman being married to a non-believer because in the New Testament we are told that if a woman has a husband who does not believe yet is happy to remain with her than she is not to send him away, but to encourage and lead him to Christ. Likewise, If a man is married to a un-believer he is not to send her away if she wishes to remain, but is to bring her into the Christian faith. No, these marriages with strange wives, was not what the modern church would have us believe as simply believers married to un-believers, but were mixed race unions.

"Strange Women" There have been some instances when the Church, under Jewish influence (especially during the Dark Ages) has dealt harshly with women and they prop up various verses such as are in the Book of Proverbs. 16: Deliver thee from the strange woman, even from the stranger which flattereth with her words. Chapter 5 For the lips of a strange woman drop as an honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil: But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword. Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell. Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house: Lest thou give thine honor unto others, and thy years unto the cruel: Lest strangers be filled with they wealth; and thy labors be in the house of a stranger. And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger? Chapter 6 "My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother; For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life: To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman. Chapter 22 "The mouth of a strange women is a deep pit: he that is abhorred of the lord shall fall therein. Chapters 23: "For a whore is a deep ditch (remember the meaning of whoredom) and a strange woman is a narrow pit. She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men. Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things".

Note that stranger does not refer to a non-acquaintance, but comes from the Hebrew word, Nokri meaning an alien – not of the same race. Again, if she had been merely a person you just met and you lay down with her then you would have been expected to bestow on her the covenant of marriage and convert her to Christ if she was an un-believer, but it does not say that. It says to stay away, stay clear, and put them away – these alien women or man had it been reversed. We have to remember, however, that it was not customary until very recent years for a woman to go and "take" a husband. The man in the past did the pursuing and too often he pursued the "strange" woman.

Hosea Chapter 5 ... "And Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, (tribe of Israel) thou committest whoredom, (racemixed) and Israel is defiled...they have begotten strange children. I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled (Defiled: to contaminate, make foul) Paul writes to us in Cor. "If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are." A person can defile the temple by racemixing. Verse 8, "Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people" Mixed means to mingle. In the Book of Psalms, Chapter 106 "But they were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works" Just as we see happening today in our land race-mixing is causing the destruction of Christianity; is making it perverse as the Church, to satisfy the strangers, takes on Pagan, Heathen, and Humanistic ideas.

Didn't Joseph marry an Egyptian woman? Egypt was founded as a white nation and as it happens through racemixing later became corrupted. However, the woman Joseph married was the granddaughter of On a Hebrew priest who trained in the early temples of Egypt in the ways of God and she was racially pure.

What about Moses you may ask? Did not Miriam and Aaron meet disfavor from God because they spoke against Moses for marrying an Ethiopian woman? Yes indeed, God was angry with these two, however, not for the reason you may assume. .

Moses' First Wife: The Cushite woman

In the Book of Jasher, a history book, you can find a detailed account of Moses' marriage to the Cushite woman. Below we quote several verses from chapters 71-76. Read the account and judge for yourself.: (The Book of Jasher is available in many book stores.)

Joshua 10:13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. {Is} not this Written in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day.

Chapter 76 ... 76:3 And in the fortieth year of the reign of Moses over Cush, Moses was sitting on the royal throne whilst Adoniah the queen was before him, and all the nobles were sitting around him. 76:4 And Adoniah the queen said before the king and princes, what is this thing which you, the children of Cush, have done for this long time? 76:5 Surely you know that for forty years that this man has reigned over Cush he has not approached me, nor has he served the gods of the children of Cush. 76:6 Now therefore hear, O ye children of Cush, and let not this man more reign over you as he is not our flesh. 76:7 Behold Menacrus my son (by Kikianus) is grown up, let him reign over you, for it is better for you to serve the son of your lord, than to serve a stranger, a slave of the King of Egypt.(In Cush Moses was 'minority', whereas if the Cushite were living in Israel, then the Cushite, not Moses, would be 'minority'.) 76:12 So Moses went forth from the land of Cush and Moses was sixty six years old when he went out of the land of Cush, for the thing was from the	Surely this thing is known. 15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. Miriam and Aaron were in trouble by God for their jealousy of Moses' greater position. They, in their jealous murmuring said, "Hath God only spoken by Moses, Hath he not spoken by us as well"

In the New Testament your church friends will share the verse "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus." This is one of the favorite verses quoted by those who try to justify race-mixing. But the verse should say there is neither Judahite nor Greek...Just as there is strife between the white nations of Europe today as between the Scotts who want independence from the English, or the war that arose between the North and the South. Paul wanted to impress upon those he was speaking to that what ever geographic nation you belong to we are all brothers and sisters in Christ. He could just have easily said, there is neither North or South – get over your bickering we are all Christians. Lets move forward. In Jerusalem at the time of Christ and later in the days of Paul it was no longer a homogeneous society.

Israel had been invaded many times and the custom in those days was for the conquering peoples to literally remove them from their homeland (forced migration) The majority of the people of Israel ended up migrating over the Caucasus mountains (thus the white race is called Caucasian) into Europe. It were these in the British Isles (means people of the covenant) and other parts of Europe (Spain means land of the Hebrews) of whom Christ was speaking when he said I have sheep of another fold. The forced migrations happened almost 1000 years before Christ. Those remaining in Babylon were few. Many race-mixed with the Heathens of the land. When the Southern tribes Benjamin and Judah returned to Jerusalem. They all went – those that were racially pure and those who had mixed with the non-whites. It was from this period of time that the descendants of the Canaanites and some of those who mixed with them perverted the Laws of Moses and formed what is called the Babylonian Talmud – the Holy book of the Jews. They went in with a temple and returned with a synagogue, went with priesthood returned with rabbis, went with racial purity returned with strange wives, went with scriptural economy – returned with the Babylonian money system. The mixed Jews in Christ's time were responsible for his death. His racially pure children loved him and followed him whole heartedly.

Another scripture they like to quote is "Hath made of one blood all nations of men" Acts 17:26 again; Paul is speaking against the infighting of white nations and encouraging them to get along.

Go unto the Gentiles. Doesn't this mean non-Jews. No. The word "gentile" was not in the original Bible. It is a transliteration of the Hebrew word "goi" singular and "goyim" plural and the Greek word "ethnos"

Translators of the early English Bibles working with Jewish Rabbis translated 4 different words into the same word Gentile. Each time you read the word Gentile you must look it up to see what word it actually refers to. It could mean heathen, nation, people or another. During the writing of the Greek Bible everyone who did not live in the land of Judah regardless of race or religion were called Judeans and everyone else, whoever or wherever they lived were called Hellens, which later became translated as gentiles. Jesus commanded his disciples to go unto the gentiles (nations) his lost sheep of another fold – those living in Europe and it is an historical fact that they did. Many of the apostles and even the mother of Christ are buried in the British Isles.

It is quite clear that the laws of God forbid intermarriage of the children of Adam and Eve with any other of the other races upon the earth. Furthermore, the non-white races are not to mingle either. Repeated throughout scripture is the command to reproduce kind after kind and the evidence as shown above goes even beyond that simple phrase so often repeated in the Bible.

Today, we are in the last age, I think we can all agree on that. The signs are there for us to see. The children of Israel, whose identity was lost, as the Bible said it would, have been regathered into a new place – America, just as the Bible predicted. Even the word America means literally the government of God. Also, as predicted, there is a counterfeit Israel as witnessed by those who "say they are Jews (Judeans) and are not" situated in the Old Jerusalem. However, the children of Adam and Eve, of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob were not to return to the old Jerusalem, they would be planted in their own land "Land move no more" (not Go Back!) 11 Sam. 7:10 but the new Jer –USA-lem. The New Jerusalem is to be a nation of unwallled cities- the old Jerusalem as seen on any news telecast is a walled city. From the New Jerusalem the gospel of Christ will go out unto the world. Is the old Jerusalem sending out a message of Christ's return and salvation? Are they sending the beacon of light to Christians worldwide or are they still holding on to the tradition of the elders – the synagogue of Satan – the Babylonian system. God's model government will be established in the top of the maintains (North America) and is based upon the laws of God. This is not so in counterfeit Israel. No where in the Bible does it say God's government or Holy city will be up in outer space somewhere but rather "And I John saw the Holy City, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of Heaven) Rev. 21" And showed me the great city, the Holy Jerusalem, descending out of Heaven from God." Rev. 21: 10

This last Church age that we are in before the return of our savior Jesus Christ is the Laodicean age – literally translated as the church of Human rights. This was the most wicked of the church ages – the beast which holds up the Babylonian one-world system, with their doctrine of multiculturalism – humanistic – beliefs. This my friends, is the downfall of our race, Yet we know by faith, that God has not forsaken us. The white race, although committing gross perversions and becoming wicked off and on through out the times still has a duty to perform – to administer rulership and Christ's love to all the races of the earth. The non- white races of the earth will not be blessed until they come to terms with the fact that the begotten children of the living God are to him a "peculiar people" to be his royal priesthood – a called out people. Can a non-white follow Christ – certainly? The Caananite woman is a good example. She asked Christ to heal her daughter, and Jesus said to her "Is it right that I take food from MY children's table and cast it to dogs" and she said "Yes, my lord, but the dogs eat the crumbs from the masters table." And he said ye are of great faith and THEN healed her daughter. In other words – they must know their place and from this knowledge will come their blessings, but never while they usurp the position of God's holy people.

This is the great truth. This is what Satan does not want you to know. This is why he has captured the modern church and is using it as a tool against the true teachings of Christ and to the detriment of God's holy seed. He wants our people adulterated and defiled in the hopes of putting an end to the government of God and his future right here on earth where His sons and daughters will rule by his side. Then and only then will we have peace on earth!
